

Bolt Pride

The heart of the Chargers' 12th man!

ARE YOU READY TO PARTY? – BOLT PRIDE STYLE!!!!!!!!!!

The 2004 season was a wild, delicious ride – but it ended too soon. Then came a very long – and sometimes painful - off-season. In fact, several Bolt Pride soldiers said their goodbyes to loved-ones. You know who you are - our respect and prayers go out to you.

But the sun is now rising on another Charger season. There is an energy and excitement all over town and around the world. Can you feel it? This is what we've been waiting for. This is the Bolt Pride Experience: our town ... our team: win or lose ... one season long party – Bolt Pride style!

The Bolt Pride family keeps getting larger each day – and it's a beautiful thing. Everyone is getting into the act. This is no time to hold back. Life is too short. Everyone in the Bolt Pride family must do their part. Bolt Pride is not complicated – show up, respect and be respected, have something to add to the party, represent the Bolt Pride way and have a great time.

The season is about to start. I ask you again:

BOLT PRIDE ... ARE YOU READY TO PARTY?!!!!!!!!!!

Peace,

#1 Alvarez
